

FOR YOU
WHO LOVE WINE,
GASTRONOMY AND OTHER GOOD THINGS IN LIFE!

Lisbon – Half-day Tour

Lisbon wine region is named after Portugal's capital city. Although the city is widely known, its wines are a pleasant and fresh surprise as they are a secret waiting to be discovered!

This region is full of contrasts: modern and old, urban and rural, ocean (the Atlantic) and hills (Serra de Montejunto). During our tour we will visit Lisboa inland to meet its wine-producers and get back to the Atlantic Ocean to see some of the most amazing landscapes.

This wine trip takes you to find the calm, fresh and surprising Lisboa surroundings, through its wines, people and history.

Setubal Peninsula – Half-day Tour

Surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean and the rivers Tejo and Sado, Setúbal Peninsula is one of the most diverse wine regions of the country! The beautiful Arrabida Mountain serves as protection against the effects of the Atlantic, with an outstanding landscape full with vineyards planted on the slopes of the hills.

In this tour you will meet some of the most special wine-producers, know about this site culture and history and taste excellent wines in a very relax and friendly environment.
